Judgment—Page 4 of 6

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall pay the restitution in installments of $100.00 per month or ten percent of his net monthly income, whichever is greater, over a period of 54 months, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

X The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

X The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

X The defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X Defendant shall submit within 15 days, not to exceed 52 tests in a one year period for drug urinalysis.

X Restitution is ordered in the amount of $14,428.00 to be paid to: Capaha Bank . Restitution is to be paid joint and several with the codefendant, Holli Wrice. The victim(s) recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution. The defendant is required to notify the Court and the Attorney General of any material change in his economic circumstances that would affect his ability to pay restitution.
